DCBOE to Select Precincts and Contests for Post-Election
Audit on Wednesday, November 7

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The District of Columbia Board of Elections (DCBOE) would like to announce today that the selection of precincts and contests for unofficial results to be audited from the November 6, 2018 General Election will take place on Wednesday, November 7, at 12:00 pm.

The Board completes an audit before certifying the outcome of the election. Unofficial results to be audited will include ballots cast on Election Day as well as absentee and special ballots.

The random selection of precincts and contests will be conducted by drawing slips of paper from a hat. At least one precinct from each ward and at least one District-wide as well as two ward-wide contests are required to be selected at random.

The precinct and contest selection is open to the public and will be held in the Board's hearing room at 1015 Half Street SE, Suite 750.

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District of Columbia Government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access, and voter registration.
