DCBOE to Participate in National Disability Voter Registration Week

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The District of Columbia Board of Elections (DCBOE) is proud to announce our participation in a national, nonpartisan effort to increase the participation of people with disabilities. This effort, known as the REV UP Campaign, has designated July 16-20, 2018 as National Disability Voter Registration Week (NDVRW) in advance of the November General Election.

Please join us in supporting the REV UP<sup>i</sup> Campaign, as well as the disability community, by attending and promoting our Voter Registration Drive during NDVRW. We will host a Voter Registration Drive on Wednesday, July 18, 2018, 1:00pm-3:00pm, at the Center for Independent Living (1400 Florida Avenue, NE #3, Washington D.C. 20002).

However, DCBOE will kick off NDVRW at our office (1015 Half Street, SE, Washington, D.C. 20003) on Monday, July 16, 2018, from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm. Please stop by our office to start the NDVRW celebration, with prizes and surprises. Voter registration applications and outreach information will also be available at the DCBOE office all week long.

If you would like to be a part of this event, please contact Terrica Jennings, Esq., ADA Coordinator, at tjennings@dcboe.org or call (202) 727-2524.

If you are a member of the press interested in covering this event, please contact Rachel Coll at rcoll@dcboe.org or call (202) 727-5411.

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District of Columbia Government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access, and voter registration.
