DCBOE Hosts Open House for Prospective Election Workers

WASHINGTON, D.C. – If you would like to serve your community on Election Day, we want to meet you.

The DC Board of Elections invites interested District residents to an open house on Saturday, March 7, 2020. The open house will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Board's offices located at 1015 Half Street, SE, Suite 750.

All attendees will learn about various election worker positions and responsibilities. Additionally, they will receive a hands-on demonstration on voting equipment.

The Board needs 3,500 election workers for the Primary Election on June 2, 2020.

To register, visit VolunteerMatch.org and enter the keyword DCBOE in the search box.

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access and voter registration.
