DCBOE Publishes Results of the Manual Audit for the June 4, 2024 Primary Election

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The District of Columbia Board of Elections (DCBOE) has completed the public manual audit of the 2024 Primary Election, which took place on Wednesday, June 26, 2024.

During the manual audit, DCBOE conducted a hand count of all votes cast in one randomly selected citywide contest (United States Senator), two ward-wide contests (Ward 2 Member of the Council and Ward 8 Member of the Council), and one precinct per ward.

Typically, differences between the hand count and the machine count are the result of additional or incomplete marks made by a voter on the ballot or the result of counting errors made by members of the audit team.

Results of the June 4, 2024 Primary Election will be certified during DCBOE's regular public Board meeting on Wednesday, July 3, 2024 at 10:30 am.

The results of the audit can be found on DCBOE's website here:

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District of Columbia Government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access, and voter registration.
