The audit will begin on Monday, November 21, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. after all ballots cast in the election have been tabulated, and it will proceed until completed. The purpose of the audit, which is conducted before certifying the results of the election, is to ensure that the voting equipment used in the election counted the votes accurately. Unofficial results to be audited will include ballots cast in-person at Early and Election Day Vote Centers, as well as mail-in ballots.

Please consult the Board's November 8, 2022 General Election Calendar of Important Dates and Deadlines for other important dates.

The District of Columbia Board of Elections is an independent agency of the District of Columbia Government responsible for the administration of elections, ballot access, and voter registration.
